

OPEN DOOR

with SOMYA KAUSHIK

ABOUT THE SHOW

Open Door is a podcast for general counsel, chief legal officers, and legal operations leaders navigating change inside modern enterprises.

Hosted by Somya Kaushik, each episode is a candid conversation with the people shaping the future of legal. Guests talk about the pivots that defined their careers, the lessons they learned along the way, and what it actually takes to lead teams through transformation, technology adoption, and organizational change.

The conversations are thoughtful, practical, and refreshingly direct, without rehearsed talking points or vendor pitches. The result is a peer-to-peer look at the challenges legal leaders are facing now, the insights they can put to work, and the human stories behind the titles.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Guest Welcome Kit

Discussion themes, sample questions, and recording details sent in advance.

Short Pre-Show Conversation

A casual, off-the-record chat with Somya to connect and align on topics.

45-60 Minute Recording

A thoughtful, peer-to-peer conversation about your career, experiences, and insights.

Edited Episode & Social Assets

Video clips, quote graphics, and suggested copy to help you share the episode.

ABOUT THE HOST

Somya Kaushik, Chief Legal Officer, Checkbox

Somya has built and led legal teams, advised high-growth organizations, and helped companies navigate the opportunities and challenges that come with emerging technologies. As Chief Legal Officer at Checkbox, an educator at Lewis & Clark Law School, and host of Open Door, she brings a practitioner's perspective to every conversation, along with a genuine curiosity about the people, decisions, and experiences behind the titles.

WHERE TO LISTEN

SPOTIFYAPPLE PODCASTSYOUTUBE

CONTACT

Interested in being a guest?
Get in touch:

Michael Ardan
michael.ardan@checkbox.ai

PRODUCED BY

✓ Checkbox

The AI Front Door powering the most strategic legal teams